Why invest in private health insurance?

Get back on your feet faster

NHS in-patients can typically wait up to 18 weeks for treatment in England, with a percentage waiting up to 26 weeks. With private health insurance, you can choose a convenient time for your treatment.

Have choice and control

Private health insurance means you can choose where, when and how you receive medical treatment. In many cases, you'll have access to a wider choice of drugs than on the NHS.

Avoid the risk of infections

A lack of resources in some NHS hospitals can lead to less hygienic environments and greater risk of catching a virus or infection (such as super-bug MRSA) during routine treatment.

Enjoy high standards of privacy and comfort

Our creature comforts can be important. Private health insurance can provide you with top-quality treatment that will help you retain dignity at difficult times.
